Chamber Of Commerce Names New Secretary

By Jane Gugel

Lester E. Lafferty, editor and publisher of The Campbell Press, at a meeting Tuesday night of the Board of Directors of the Campbell Chamber of Commerce was appointed to serve as executive-secretary of the chamber on a temporary basis.

In accepting the position Lafferty said that he would make every effort to advance the cause of the Chamber of Commerce but that his time was limited and therefore he would only take the position until a permanent secretary could be found.

Lafferty published the San Carlos Enquirer before purchasing The Campbell Press a year ago. He served as executive secretary of the San Carlos Chamber of Commerce from 1938 to 1945 during which time the industrial growth of the area was pushed forward resulting in plans for an industrial highway which has just been completed.

Committee appointments made by Sam P. Cava, chamber president included: Dave Ribble, publicity chairman, Mario Saia, industrial committee chairman and Dave Ribble, entertainment committee chairman.

Cava reported that he had contacted Chief of Police Robert Locke as requested at the last board meeting regarding the traffic situation on the San Jose-Los Gatos Road. He said "Locke is to be commended as he had already written a letter to the State Highway Commission regarding the problem on the highway and they had replied that before any changes are made their office would have to conduct a survey which they are now doing."

The president reported that Chief Locke favors the reduction of the speed limit to 35 miles an hour on San Jose-Los Gatos Road.

Cava also reported that he had suggested traffic signals at the junction of Campbell Ave and the San Jose-Los Gatos Road which also would have to be taken up with the State Highway Commission.

At the same time Cava enquired about the half block loading zone used by the buses on Campbell Ave. and was referred to Mayor Richard Morton, under whose jurisdiction this matter would fall.

The fourth matter concerned the distribution of handbills and will have to be taken up with Joseph Bonacina, city attorney.

The matter of the contest for "Miss Campbell' was discussed by board members. Joyce Gomes is the candidate being sponsored by the Campbell Chamber of Commerce and the judging will be tonight at 8:00 p. m. at the Villa Felice.

A communication from Russel Pettit concerning booths at the Santa Clara County Fair was discussed and members decided to try to get several businesses to cooperate in the purchase of one booth. Al Darling of the Fur Breeders Agency in Campbell has already agreed to take a second booth. If both booths are sold the Campbell Chamber of Commerce will be given a third booth for the use of the Chamber without charge.

Glen Skilrud, membership chairman, reported that a letter is being sent out soliciting the cooperation of Campbell citizens and businesses in making the activities of the Chamber successful through their active participation as members.

It was reported that a letter had been sent to J. T. McCann, district freight agent for Southern Pacific Railroad, requesting him to invite C. D. Lafferty, manager of industrial development for Southern Pacific, to be guest speaker at the next luncheon meeting of the chamber.

The purchase of a mimeograph machine was authorized by the membership.

Mothers' March Here Monday In Polio Campaign

"Lights on for the fight against polio" is the key-note of the current Emergency March of Dimes drive, as volunteers make final preparations for the "Mothers' March" Monday night, August 30, according to sub-chairman for this area, Mrs. Robert Jasmine, of Campbell.

"All who wish to contribute to this worthy cause for continuance of the fight against the crippling disease, are urged to turn on their porch lights Monday night, so that volunteer workers may call to pick up donations to the drive," Mrs. Jasmine said.

The Mothers' March marks the final activity in this emergency campaign, as the drive officially closes August 31. All proceeds collected locally for the Eemergency fund are handled by the Santa Clara County Chapter, National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis.

California has double today the number of cases as shown this date in 1948, our worst polio year. Our state leads the nation in polio —having 20% of the the total cases. Yet the peak of this year's polio season may not have been reached.

Workers are busy preparing for the Mothers' March next Monday

Grange Leader Says Water Needed Here For Industry

A water conservation study endorsed by the California State Grange may lead to the development of new water and power resources which would be a vital factor in bringing industry to the West, according to George Sehlmeyer, California State Grange Master in a talk Tuesday evening before some 250 members of the Orchard City Grange in the Odd Fellows Hall here. Sehlmeyer said there is an influx of about 35,000 people a month to California and the bay area today is getting its share of this number. He said certain industries want to establish on the west coast but that lack of water, essential to their operations, prevent their coming.

Sehlmeyer told of some meetings in Washington and indicated that President Eisenhower is doing a good job, although sometimes held back by political advisors. Secretary of Agriculture Benson, a capable cabinet member, is a man of strong convictions, whom Sehlmeyer said he had known for many years. Benson is sometimes unhappy if forced to give way to political strategy.

While the battle for water is serious, Sehlmeyer said the growing indifference of the people throughout the nation toward most of our national problems is appalling since but about 51% of the qualified voters go to the polls on election day. The Grange he said is an active factor in developing leadership and it has infuence and recognition with elected officials.

On the subject of lasting peace, Sehlmeyer said that better understanding of other people's needs is the answer, and that food distribution will do much toward that end.

Orchard City Grange was established 51 years ago in Campbell. Present for the meeting Tuesday night was Charlotte Sutter, a charter member and long time secretary. Another charter member, Jessie Campbell, was unable to be present although still living in Campbell. The hall was beautifully decorated by Grange Flora, Mrs. Grace Strickler. The meeting was opened by Grange Master A. J. Emery. Officers were escorted in a formal drill to their stations. Besides the State Grange Master, others escorted to seats of honor and introduced were Mrs. Mabel Glen, State Grange Home Economics chairman; Mrs. Florence Sheffer, 5th district H. E. C. chairman; Mrs. Effie Spencer, State Grange Flora; Mrs. Augusta Melott, State Grange Youth Director; Harry Barnes, State Grange executive board member since 1931 and John Gordon, Santa Clara County district deputy.

Mrs. Glen told of welfare work done by ladies of the Home Economics Clubs throughout the state, and that preparations are under way now for the state fair and for the state Grange convention in San Jose.

Harry Barnes outlined the history of the grange, founded in 1867 as a farm social organization for both men and women.

Grange Master Emery introduced Mayor Richard Morton and Councilman John Chargin. Lecturer Josephine Biller presented her program, first of which were vocal numbers by Mrs. Effie Spencer accompanied by Mrs. Allan Cary, wife of Pomona Master. State officials were then presented potted plants by the Flora, Mrs. Grace Strikler.

A series of living pictures were presented in a huge frame depicting many stages of life from old time, the home, courtship, marriage, announced by Martin S. Walsh of Campbell, accompanied by such fetching songs as "When You and I Were Young" and "Beautiful Doll" as sung by Mrs. Lou Watson of Los Gatos, accompanied by Mrs. Olga Cooper. Wedding picture was Miss Paddy White as bride, Junior Ball as the groom and Art Wilson, the minister.

Following the close of the meeting, refreshments were served in the banquet room by Mrs. Ella Bruegeman, committee chairman assisted by Mrs. Alice Reynolds and Mrs. A. J. Emery.

FIRE TUESDAY DESTROYS HOME

A home owned by G. LaMorte at 471 N. Winchester Road near Campbell was destroyed by fire early Tuesday morning.

Fire apparently was caused by a gas stove which the owner had lighted to make a pot of coffee. LaMorte went outside and when he returned the house was in flames.

The Campbell Fire Department was summoned and 15 volunteers and three regular firemen responded to the call. Santa Clara County Sheriff's Office notified Santa County Clara Fire District of the blaze and men and equipment were sent out from the Cambrian Fire Station.

BOUNDARY GROUP APPROVES A NEW CAMBRIAN LINE

The County Boundary Commission gave approval Monday to a proposal by San Jose to annex the 37-acre Curtner tract, another arm stretching toward the Cambrian Park area. It is south of Koch Lane and west of the Guadalupe river and is owned by Zesch, Nelson and Hauck Land Co.

The Board of Supervisors set a hearing for Tuesday, September 7 on an application to withdraw certain territory from the County Sanitation District No. 4 because of its inclusion now in the San Jose municipal limits.

The acreage is off Stevens Creek Road from Santa Clara-Los Gatos Road to include portions of Bascom Garden tract, Caputa Acres and Moorpark Manor subdivision.

EDITORIAL

PRANKSTERS

Back in 1903 when President Theodore Roosevelt was in Campbell to plant a Sequoia tree in front of the high school, the occasion was later memorialized with a plaque, placed there by public-spirited citizens. The tree itself, of course, is a living memorial. The plaque disappeared some time ago, presumably taken away by young pranksters.

Nothing much was said about it until last Spring when a group of teen-agers from the Campbell Grammar school came forward with a plan and the funds to have the plaque restored. So far, so good. Our faith has been restored in the youth of today, who are the citizens of tomorrow.

A few weeks ago an elderly man on Alice street was called away because of the illnesses or death of his kin folk, and before returning, three of his brothers had been claimed by death within a sixty-day period. In his absence, pranksters had broken down his flag pole. Now a flag pole is of no value to anyone except that it be used for patriotic purposes to hoist. in this country, the stars and stripes, the emblem of our country. In this observance, the gentleman was seldom amiss, on a national holiday.

Wonder what is to be done about this? Will teen-agers, any of them, come forward with a solution regardless of their responsibility toward the act?

VOTERS TOO, HAVE POWER

Final day for voter registration for the November 2 General Election, officials warn, is September ninth.

Throughout most of California, special drives already are under way to notify all citizens of the registration deadline. Both the Democratic Party and the Republican Party, the Junior Chamber of Commerce, the League of Women Voters and other interested groups are making registration drives.

A great many lures are held out to prospective voters concerning registration. Duty, conscience, country; the themes in behalf of good citizenship are many. The State, according to the Elections Code, even extends special privileges to voters:

"Except for an indictable offense, every voter is privileged from arrest, while at, or while going and returning from, his polling place on any election day.

"Except in time of war or public danger, no voter is obliged to perform militia duty on an election day."

Voters at election time, in short, have almost as many privileges as the men and women seeking their favor.

THE ROAD BACK

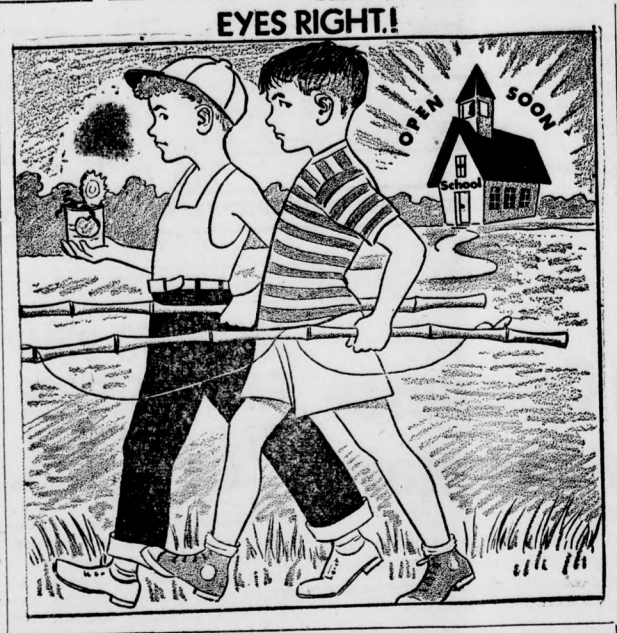
Back in Indiana recently there occurred an event which to our outlook is very significant. The workers of the Studebaker plant held an election to reduce their wages. The reason was very basic. The firm by which they were employed had suffered a severe loss in its previous year's operations. This plus the fact that their wages were considerably over the industry average.

After a foul-up of misunderstanding during an earlier election resulting in a negative vote, responsible union leaders undertook another vote by secret ballot, and the reduction in wages was accomplished. A reduction in hourly wages, that is, for in all probability, the workers will take more home on a weekly or a monthly basis than before — and maybe their employer can stay in business. Because it is so very simple—if a firm doesn't make money, it goes broke sooner or later.

Lucky, indeed, is the Studebaker corporation — for they are big enough to make the union leaders recognize that something had to be done. Small businesses all over the nation are suffering from similar situations—but they are not big enough to break down the wage structure to enable them to remain in business. In so many cases, a wage scale is set by negotiation with the larger concerns, and the small businesses are forced to go along—or else. And some are having a mighty difficult struggle, particularly in the face of competing techniques performing the same type of work, but not requiring the same rules and regulations as to the price of their labor.

IT IS TO LAUGH

The old question, "What is art?" could well be asked once again after the award of a second place prize to an artist at the San Mateo Fair for a painting entered merely as a joke. Said he: "I only submitted it because I thought it would be snickered at and thrown out." The painting is that of a man with a haunted look. The artist first called it "Self Portrait" and later "Schizophrenic." He submitted it under the latter title. According to one judge, had it not been for the poor frame, the picture might have taken first prize. All of which brings up the question: What's the frame got to do with it? If the painting is good, what difference does it make whether it has a frame or not? We don't know, we're just asking.



The Campbell Gambol

LEGIONARIES From Campbell will don overalls Saturday and literally take over the Cambrian Park Service Station for a twelve hour period, doing the windshields, blowing up tires, pumping gas and poking that little gadget in the side of the engine to see if there is enough oil circulating about . . . a percentage of the gas sales will go to the Post which money will be earmarked for their activities such as rehabilitation, child welfare, hospital patients welfare, community service, youth activities and many others.

FOUR WAY Signal light at Hamilton and the San Jose-Los Gatos Road are certainly serving a good purpose as traffic is under complete control, but a major oil company after getting a zoning permit for a station on the north west corner, brought in some second hand materials and a lot of paint expecting to present a new appearance which it won't have.

PLUNK, PLUNK, PLUNK The prunes are dropping and the staccato thump from the buckets indicate the harvest is well advanced . . . The co-op is said to have been running at peak production by Saturday, and new fruit had to wait its turn for processing, so right now I feel like a slave to the lowly prunes that fall faster than they can be picked up, soft and wrinkle . . . can't go away and leave them a few days for fear the wind will come up and whoosh them all down, and everyone I've invited over for a prune party, eye me sort of queer like and say No tha-an-k you, we got 'em too, or we have an aunt or a brudder who has them and is sending us some.

DOLLAR DAYS In Campbell brought out the shoppers and parking space was at a premium, most of the store owners saying business was good as shoppers went from store to store looking for a winning number and a $5 purchase order.

ALMADEN WINES TAKE HONORS AT FAIR JUDGING

A bumper crop of top awards was harvested by Almaden Vineyards in the wine judgings at the California State Fair and the Los Angeles County Fair at Pomona according to official announcements just released.

For the fifth time in six years Almaden is winner of the unofficial sweepstakes for the highest number of awards earned in the Pomona tastings.

Almaden Grenach Rose, which was featured recently by LIFE magazine's panel of wine experts, was given special recognition at both events; a gold medal at Pomona, and the blue ribbon in the special class comparative tasting at Sacramento.

Other popular Almaden wines selected for top honors included dry Flor Sherry, Centennial Brandy, Champagne, Pinot Noir, Pinot Chardonnay, Rhine, dry Sauterne, Chablis, Burgundy and Red Chianti.

ART EXHIBIT AT COUNTY FAIR TO BE JURY JUDGED

Entry forms for the Art Division at the Santa Clara County Fair have been released Chairman Roger Condon has announced.

Comparable cash prizes will be awarded in other classifications that the jury designates. Fair premium ribbon awards will be given in all divisions where sufficient competition exists.

September 5 is entry deadline. There is no entry fee, but exhibitors must have articles delivered at Fairgrounds Administration building before closing date.

Jury of selection, or judges, this year include Dr. Herbert Sanders, Paul Gallagher and Eugenia Lowe.

Divisions in the conservative sections include oil painting, water color, tempera, pastel, etching, print, drawing, ceramic, hand wrought jewely and sculpturing. Sections in the modern divisions are oil painting, water color and tempera, and drawings and prints.

Constant planting has made Golden Gate Park one of San Francisco's beauty spots.

GOOD-BYE, MR. COMMUNIST

President Eisenhower signed a bill this week which will outlaw the communist party, a bill which strips the party of its rights and privileges. It is about time something like this is done, for the people of this country are fed up with those who would just as soon see this government overthrown. We never did like the idea of our recognizing Red Russia. America is the land of the free and you can't keep it that way if it is infiltrated with those trying forever to knock out its props.

New Book Ready On County History

The third-grade children of Santa Clara County will be studying their home territory's history this fall from a new textbook, "It All Happened Right Here!" written by Vinson Brown and just published by Stanford University Press.

The book is sponsored by the Santa Clara County School Department, and will be placed in all county school third grades and in the County Library. It was written to answer the many questions that boys and girls of Santa Clara County ask about their own communities.

Vinson Brown of San Martin, has spent many years working with young people. He has chosen to tell stories of Santa Clara County through the character of Dr. Hand, a professor at San Jose State College. He takes his own children and two friends on day-long trips throughout the county, telling them stories of both the present and long ago.

The book begins with the county's geological and geographical history. Santa Clara Mission, with its rich background of Spanish history, is visited, and the group spends a day at the New Almaden mines, once so valuable for their quicksilver. The children learn about the "gold above the ground" in the big orchards of the Valley, and are fascinated by the great cattle ranches near Gilroy.

BEGONIAS IN BLOOM NOW

FIBROUS BEGONIA

Bedding begonias are one of the few plants that will give immediate color for the fall garden and can be counted on for a repeat performance next spring. In fact few flowers surpass begonias in close to year round display and few plants are able to absorb more abuse. Available now in nursery flats with a bright show of flower, bedding begonias are easily transplanted without any trimming or pinching back. iGiven a good dose of water they can be transplanted on the hottest days to give immediate garden color.

Primarily begonias are used as a border plant although mass plantings show to good effect. Planted into pots or window boxes or patio planters, they will give good results where many plants fail due to the ability of begonias to withstand periods of drought that would kill many similar plants.

According to the California Bedding Plant Advisory Board, begonias should be planted in a sunny location with the best of drainage. The soil should be modified with a third of peat moss or leaf mold. Well rotted steer manure also serves to supply the necessary humus that bedding begonias thrive on. Occasional heavy watering is suggested with care taken not to sprinkle the foliage late in the evening as the leaves are subject to mildew.

For a little variety, there are some bronze leafed bedding begonias that merit usage. Medium in height, they are a little tall for border edging, but will work well where plants or 14" to 18" tall can be used. Carman is a pink flowered variety and Indian Maid is a red flowered variety. Both have deep bronze foliage which is extremely attractive and which sets off the flowers beautifully. For taller screening, usage of the tall upright sempeflorens begonias are available. This type grows about two feet tall and bears large showy florets, in white, red and pink.

IN CAMPBELL'S KITCHENS

This week we have two recipes which are tempting, unusual and delicious from Mrs. D. A. Sanders of Budd Ave. The first is a one-dish meal called "More" which indicates the reaction of those who partake of this delicious casserole.

MORE

3 or 4 slices bacon
1 large onion
1 lb. ground beef
No. 2½ can tomatoes
No. 2 can string beans
No. 2 can whole kernel corn

1 can hot sauce
Salt and pepper to taste
1 cup grated cheese

Cut the bacon into small pieces and fry. Add onion and meat and brown. Add remaining ingredients, except the cheese and let simmer at least 20 minutes. Add cheese just before serving. (Mrs. Sanders said that she likes a little marjoram and parsley added to taste). Serves 8.

Wonderful to serve to company because it should be made the night before is this ice box cake. Mrs. Sanders said that it made an excellent dessert following a heavy meal as it seemed like a light dessert in spite of the pastry cream.

ORANGE ICE BOX CAKE

8 eggs
½ cup orange juice
3 tbls. lemon juice
½ cup sugar
4 tbls. gelatin, soaked in 1/3 cup cold water
1 tsp. orange rind
½ pt. whipping cream

Beategg yolks, add sugar and juice. Cook over hot water until thick. Add soaked gelatine and orange rind. Remove from fire, cool. Add stiffly beaten egg whites and stiffly beaten cream, and fold in well. Put into a spring mold pan lined with lady fingers and let stand overnight. Before serving, spread lightly with whipped cream and cut like cake. Serves 12.

Hint: to make lady fingers stick to sides of pan, put a touch of butter on them.

George says further that he could get a gallon can in the mouth of the fish at the time it was caught.

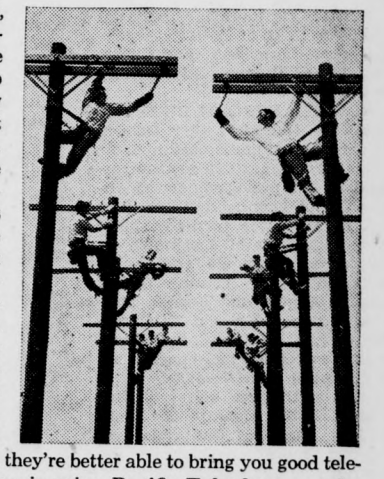
WHAT'S DOING

T. T. Cook, Jr., your Telephone District Manager for Campbell

Classroom in the sky



You might not guess it, but these men are going to school. They're learning how to climb telephone poles safely and to string lines that will carry your calls. This course is just one of many given in telephone schools. Others — lasting anywhere from three days to six months — train operators, business office people, installers, and the like. Such training gives telephone people the skills they need to do their jobs faster, better, cheaper . . . and more safely, too. Thus, they're better able to bring you good telephone service that's low in price. Pacific Telephone works to make your telephone a bigger value every day.

A long distance visit costs so little

How long has it been since you heard the voices of far-away loved ones—friends you haven't seen for ages? A visit by long distance is the next best thing to being there in person. It means so much and costs so little. You can call coast to coast—clear to Boston for example—for only $2.00 plus tax. That's the rate for a three-minute "station" call after 6 P.M. weekdays and all day Sunday. Calls over shorter distances naturally cost even less. Why not plan to send your love—your friendship across the miles by long distance tonight.

SOFTBALL CHAMPIONS

San Jose softball champions were awarded a memorial trophy Saturday, August 21, at Cedar Brook Park.

The trophy is one of two established by telephone company employees in memory of Harry G. Shaw, San Jose Plant Engineer, who died last April.

Each year these trophies are to be awarded to winning softball and bowling teams in the Telco League.

This year's award goes to the Richard's Street Construction team—champions of San Jose Telco Twilight League.

The presentation was made by Mrs. Shaw to C. Cooley, Manager of the winning team at the all-employee barbecue. Approximately 500 people were present at the ceremony.

San Jose telephone employees contributed the funds for the trophies, because—in the words of the memorial accompanying each award: "H. G. Shaw, by his dedication to the principle of good sportsmanship, and his devotion to the promotion of recreational activities among his friends and fellow-employees, did establish a lasting benefit to all."

The softball trophy stands 30 inches high, with a mahogany base and is topped by a small statue of a baseball player in batting stance.

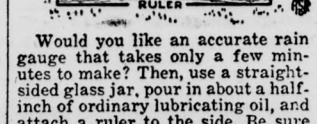
Study in Precision

Have you ever puffed on the cottony head of a seeded dandelion, and watched its filmy segments scatter on the winds? If so, you will readily identify the parachute-topped object (center right) with stem and "cloven-hoof." It is an ordinary dandelion seed, 25 times enlarged, attached to a stemmed "flyer."

Vying with nature's handiwork are the tive incredibly tiny and precise, man-made, steel balls (left) that form the "heart" of the winding mechanism of the world's most technically advanced self-winding watch, the Eterna-Matic. Each ball weighs only 112 hundred-thousandths of a gram and has an actual diameter of 65 hundredths of a millimeter.

By comparison, the seed (lower right) weighs 47 hundred-thousandths of a gram and has a diameter of 64 hundredths of a millimeter. This study in precision is a micro-photographic view of nature's and the watchmaker's miniature wonderlands.

Rain Gauge



Would you like an accurate rain gauge that takes only a few minutes to make? Then, use a straight-sided glass jar, pour in about a half-inch of ordinary lubricating oil, and attach a ruler to the side. Be sure to set the jar in the open so it will catch the exact amount of rainfall. The oil keeps the water from evaporating.

A.M.A. Chief Urges MD's to Safeguard 'Soul of Medicine'

SAN FRANCISCO — Dr. Walter B. Martin of Norfolk, Va., in taking office here as 108th president of the American Medical Association, advised the nation's physicians to "reach back further than the disease" in treating their patients.

One of the nation's outstanding authorities on medical matters, he warned that "the very success of medicine in a material way may now threaten the soul of medicine."

"Medicine is something more than the cold mechanical application of science to human disease," Dr. Martin said. "Medicine is a healing art. It must deal with individuals, their fears, their hopes and their sorrows. It must reach back further than a disease that the patient may have to those physical and emotional environmental factors which condition the individual for the reception of the disease. The trend in modern medicine is to separate the patient further and further from the physician as a counsellor.

"As practitioners of medicine, we have dedicated ourselves to the service of humanity. We should remember this at all times and, in our private and public acts, hold that thought as a torch before us."

The incoming AMA president also had some advice for the patient.

"The mechanics of medicine have become the important part of medicine in the public eye," Dr. Martin declared. "More hospitals, more equipment and more technicians have become the symbol of medical progress. In this mechanical maelstrom many patients find themselves lost. They speed from this laboratory to that, from one specialist to another, with hardly a pause for consideration by anyone of their problems as a human being.

"It would be desirable if every patient could first seek the advice of a general practitioner of medicine. The general practitioner should determine the need for and kind of special studies suitable in each case."

Senator Thompson Lauds Insurance Plan Organization

The August 19 issue of Underwriters' Report, a national magazine for insurance agents presents an article about State Senator John F. "Jack" Thompson's support of the Judgment Guarantee Plan.

The plan for protection against the uninsured motorist was developed by Sam K. Giuffrida of San Jose.

Thompson, who is a member of the Senate's Financial Institutions Committee, was quoted as saying: "I firmly believe that you have the answer to the compulsory liability insurance problem. When someone is insured under your plan, he is in the same position he would be if every driver in the nation carried liability insurance. What could be more simple than that?"

The senator added that he will "continue to support the traffic safety program of the Judgment Guarantee Association. I heartily agree with your program that calls for more teeth in the financial responsibility laws."

The Judgment Guarantee Association is an integral part of Mr. Giuffrida's program. It is a non-profit safety group organized by Mr. Giuffrida to "promote safety, enforce traffic regulations and provide insurance that will guarantee the members collections of pudgments from financially irresponsible parties."

Although the association has incorporated in California since 1950, it has not been active because no carrier in the state was offering the judgment guarantee coverage. With the acceptance of the plan by California Compensation Insurance Company recently, Mr. Giuffrida told the Underwriters' Report that he hopes to activate the association in the near fture. To be eligible, the driver must have judgment guarantee insurance.

EXPANDS PLANT

Ground was broken in San Francisco last week for a $2,050,000 addition to the plant of the American Can Company.

The new building, at 3d and 20th Streets, will house production equipment and serve as a warehouse. It is scheduled for completion early next year.

Two bridges will connect the new building with the existing plant, one for trucks and the other for power cables and other apparatus.

San Jose Bank To Have Branches At Palo Alto, Mt. View

Joseph Rogers, President of The First National Bank of San Jose announces two new offices—Palo Alto and Mountain View, and an increase of 20% in capital stock of the Bank. The opening of these new offices, Mr. Rogers stated, was necessary to continue the bank's policy of neighborly banking to the ever-expanding communities of Santa Clara County. The increase in capital structure, the fourth since 1949, will bring the capital funds of the bank to $3½ million. With the two new banks, opening within the next few weeks, the First National Bank will have seven offices to serve the Valley residents' banking needs.

The Board of Directors have called a special meeting of shareholders to be held on September 8th to take action on the proposed increase of capital stock of the bank by $250,000. This will increase the capital stock to $1,500,000 by the sale of 2,500 additional shares at par value of $100 per share to shareholders of record in the ratio of one new share for each five shares owned. This will mean that in the last five years the capital stock of the bank has been doubled and retained earnings have increased surplus fund 100%. The resources of the bank are now over $60 million and this is indicative of the growth being experienced by the bank and by the communities in Santa Clara Valley.

The Mountain View Office will be located in the new Armanini building now under construction at 312 Castro Street and this office should be ready for occupancy about November 1st.

Hollis Logue, architect who designed the new Los Gatos building for the First National Bank is preparing the plans for the new office. Logue is president of the Campbell Planning Commission.

Mr. Rogers stated that the bank will open a Palo Alto Office in temporary quarters at 334 California Avenue about October 11th. The facilities will be completely renovated and remodeled and will be occupied by the bank until they can build on a premanent location to be selected. This office will have space for eight tellers, drive up banking service in the rear, and ample customer parking space.

Both offices will have free night depository service and be equipped to handle real estate, commercial, installment, automobile, FHA, Title I, improvement and personal loans. Each office will have savings, commercial and collection departments.

Mr. Rogers pointed out that the First National Bank has been serving residents of this County for over 80 years and with its seven offices will be in a position to provide neighborly banking facilities for all Valley residents.

Oscar Meyer, general contractor, is now in the process of constructing a modern bank building in Los Gatos at 308 North Santa Cruz Avenue. This new Los Gatos building is expected to be completed and ready for occupancy early in 1955.

County Leading In Subdivisions

Ninety square miles or 57,619 acres of land in the Bay area were subdivided in the seven year period ending June 30, 1953, a recent study by the San Francisco Bay Area Council revealed.

As a contrast, San Francisco occupies 45 square miles with a net residential area of approximately 13 square miles. During the seven year period covered by the fiscal years 1947 through 1953, the acreage subdivided in each of three Bay Area counties, Contra Costa, San Mateo and Santa Clara, exceeded the net residential area in San Francisco.

Thestudy shower that a total of 2,833 subdivision in the nine counties had been approved by the California Division of Real Estate during the seven year period. Santa Clara county had the greatest number of subdivisions in the Bay Area, 768, while Contra Costa led in the total subdivided acreage, 14,050 acres.

In Santa Clara county the 768 subdivisions in the seven year period from July 1, 1946 to June 30, 1953, totaled 10,572 acres of 16.5 square miles according to the Bay Area Council's report.

An all-time high of 12,450,000,000 pounds of beef was produced in the United States in 1953.

Field of Campbell. The couple are now honeymooning in Canada and expect to return September 8 to establish their home at Escalon where the bridegroom owns a cattle and turkey ranch.

STORM WARNING IS ISSUED HERE

Special rain warnings for Santa Clara ranchers came today from the U. S. Weather Bureau in San Francisco. Showers, within the next 24 hours would be light in the valley but heavier in the hills. Albert Foster, deputy agricultural commissioner said that a light rain will not mold the prunes but a heavy rain would cause mold on prunes on the ground and knock prunes off the trees.

A low pressure area near the coast north of San Francisco is causing the weather change, the report concludes.

Forests mean wealth to California. Help protect them by being careful with fire at all times in wooded and grassland areas.

Go and shew John again those things which ye do hear and see: The blind receive their sight, and the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, and the deaf hear, the dead are raised up, and the poor have the gospel preached to them."

The following correlative pass-Health with Key to the Scriptures" age will be read from "Science and by Mary Baker Eddy (131:26-30):

"The mission of Jesus confirmed prophecy, and explained the so-called miracles of olden time as natural demonstrations of the divine power, demonstrations which were not understood. Jesus' works established his claim to the Messiahship."

The Golden Text is from John (1:17): "The law was given by Moses, but grace and truth came by Jesus Christ."

Hacienda Center Plans Held Up By County Planners

A $200,000 shopping center proposed for Hacienda Drive between Capri Drive and Santa Clara-Los Gatos Road by Anthony P. Turturici will have specific restrictions imposed if granted by the county planning commission according to action taken last Tuesday. Planners told Turturici to bring in more comprehensive plans for his project and evidence that the center will not detract from the residential appearance.

Opposition from neighbors was recorded at the commission hearing.

CHRYSLER AWARDED STEVENS TROPHY

The historic Stevens Trophy is awarded to Chrysler for breaking all Indianapolis Speedway speed and endurance records for stock cars in a 24-hour continuous run at an average speed of 89.89 m.p.h. for 2,157 miles. Speedway president Wilbur Shaw (center) who calls the run "the greatest stock car test in the world" presents the trophy to Chrysler Division's general sales manager E. M. Braden (right) while American Automobile Association contest board chairman Colonel A. W. Herrington gives Braden the record certificate. The record was set by a stock 235-horsepower FirePower V-8 New Yorker DeLuxe model which reached speeds in excess of 120 m.p.h. over the roughest hard-top race track in the world. Regular grade gasoline and stock tires were used.

Annexation Law Changes Studied

An advisory sub-committee set up in Santa Clara County by Assemblyman Dan Creedon of San Mateo, including representatives of municipal and county governments may seek changes in annexation procedures especially as they relate to strip annexations and school district encroachments.

The committee may amend annexation laws so a city may annex heavily populated fringe areas and find it more difficult to strip annex uninhabited land; it might increase powers of the boundaries commission or do away with it; through state action the number of school districts may be reduced bringing smaller elementary school districts into existing high school districts; it might bring city type adminstraton to some county-wide services such as roads and sanitation facilities.

Karl Belser, chairman of the advisory group hit at annexation provisions allowing a city to take a strip of farm land without owner consent, just to reach a desired industrial or other developed area.

Belser recommends that a city be required to get the consent of each land owner involved in such an annexation.

Tied in with annexations is the study of Boundary Commission powers. The commission's job now is to certify that boundaries of a proposed annexation are correct and do not conflict with any other proposed or established lines.

Possibility of drastic consolidation measures in county schools is being studied by the committee.

The present system of separate administrations for the many small districts is inefficient, Belser said.

One solution would be to consolidate the smaller elementary districts into the existing high school units, according to Belser.

YOUR "LUCKY" SPORTSCASTER

National professional football commissioner Bert Bell recently criticized baseball's Willie Mays for signing with an agent and demanding fees for appearances. Bell says the newspapers, radio and television gave Mays a million dollars worth of free publicity and he now is trying to charge these mediums for further enhancing his value.

The swing Carlos Bernier took at umpire Chris Valenti could have knocked the Hollywood Stars right out of the PCL pennant. The Stars were definitely weakened by having Bernier suspended for the remainder of the season and loss of the fiery little sparkplug could be the difference between holding the league lead and losing it.

One of the most remarkable promotions of recent years is the nine-hole golf course in the infield at Golden Gate Fields. Golfing horse players will now have a chance to lose money out of two pockets at the same time by blowing a short putt just in time to tear up a two-dollar win ticket.

Hear Pat Hernon's Lucky Lager play-by-play re-creations of major league games of the day over KYA. For the week of August 29 the broadcast times are: Sunday (White Sox-Yankees), 11:15 a.m.; Monday (Indians-Red Sox), Tuesday (White Sox-Red Sox), Wednesday and Thursday (Indians-Yankees), at 10:55 a.m. each day; Friday (baseball classic), Saturday (Dodgers-Giants), at 10:25 a.m. each day.

Frank Kelleher, the veteran Hollywood long-ball hitting outfielder, has disclosed that he will quit the game after this season. Kelleher will be 38 years old by the time the end of the campaign rolls around.

Al Lyons, who was released by the San Francisco Seals and picked up by San Diego, was roundly booed when he made his appearance in Seals Stadium recently. The San Francisco fans apparently resented the fact that Lyons refused to pitch for the Seals, but has appeared regularly on the mound for Lefty O'Doul.

The Strait of Juan de Fuca may well replace the English Channel as the ultimate goal of distance swimmers. The channel has been crossed and criss-crossed while the straits have never been conquered. Florence Chadwick, who swam the English Channel both ways, is the most recent to be defeated by the cold and currents of Juan de Fuca.

Incidentally, Glenda Ortlip, 18-year-old San Francisco distance swimmer, continued her rapid development recently by smashing the women's record for crossing chilly Lake Tahoe. The girl's time for the gruelling 12-mile swim was only 43 minutes off the men's record.

The Hollywood Stars, base-stealing-est team in the Pacific Coast League, do not have a "steal" sign. They have only a sign indicating "Do Not Steal." Unless manager Bobby Bragan puts on the no-steal signal, the players are on their own.

The professional football exhibition games, which don't count in the standings, are already taking their toll, as usual, in injured players. However, from the owners' viewpoint they are more profitable than regular season games since the players are not drawing salaries. Several clubs show profits for the year only because of this edge in the exhibition games.

County Property Tax Rate Up 10¢

The Board of Supervisors on Monday adopted a property tax rate of 1.865 per $100 assessed valuation, highest rate since 1951-52. The budget is $28,723,203 of which about ten millions will be on commitments.

Welfare work calls for a 3½c increase over the 20c rate of the last fiscal year. The welfare bill totals nine and a half million dollars so the tax is increased from .05 to .084.

Santa Clara County levies a 4c tax to support its Fair expecting to raise $179,200 toward the Fair Association's $429,550 total budget. The state allots $65 from pari mutuel racing tax monies of which $50,000 goes for premiums and the remainder for capital outlay.

The advertising fund calls for .014; charities .295; general. 985 and retirement .085.

The inside rate is for $1.830 and outside unincorporated area is $1.865.

Group Urges Work Start On Freeway

Immediate work on the State Route 5 freeway, a 12-mile stretch from Bayshore highway to Los Gatos has been recommended by Central Coast Council of the California State Chamber of Commerce in a message submitted to the State Highway Commission.

The project proposal covering needs in five counties calls also for complete rights-of-way acquisition and design and construction of state route 5 from Castro Valley Junction to Hayward. In calls for survey and plans for 9.4 miles State Route 114, Mathilda avenue to Saratoga. Realignment and paving Route 119 from Pajaro River to U. S. 101.

The improvement proposals were submitted today by Clause Faw of Berkeley, chairman of the Central Coast regional Highway Committee.

Spartans Ready For Grid Season

A note of optimism is in the air at San Jose State College as Coach Bob Bronzan calls practice tomorrow with 53 candidates for one of the most interesting football schedules in Spartan history.

The Spartan team should be more experienced, faster, and stronger in almost every department than the last year Golden Raider team that finished with a 4-4-1 season.

Following the practice he established five years ago, Coach Bronzan has called the first meeting for 6:30 a. m., September 1, with the initial field session following one hour later. Camera day will be at 10 a. m., September 4.

Two-a-day sessions will be in force for the first six days of practice with the field drills starting at 7:30 a. m. and the afternoon session beginning at 4:30. This avoids the hottest part of the day and allows maximum time for the players to regain energies expended in the early session.

There will be at least 20 lettermen returning to form the nucleus for what might be the strongest team in the annals of Sparta. Coupled with this is a group of non-lettermen, including Joe Ulm, fullback, the leading scorer in the nation last year at the end of four games, and Clarence Wessman, end, an outstanding prospect for All-American honors. Ulm and Wessman were declared ineligible on a residence technicality after the fourth game.

The regular staff of Bronzan, Line Coach Bill Perry, and Backfield Coach Gene Menges will be augmented by the addition of Larry Matthews and Dale Sumers, two stars of last year's team, and George Davis, former USC football star. Matthews, Sumers, and Davis will take up duties as coaches of the freshman team after the varsity season starts.

The schedule: Sept. 18, Utah State; Sept. 25, California at Berkeley; Oct. 2, Idaho at Moscow; Oct. 9, Arizona State at Tempe; Oct. 23, Oregon at Eugene; Oct. 30, North Texas at Denton; Nov. 6, COP at Stockton; Nov. 13, Stanford at Palo Alto; Nov. 19, Fresno State; and Nov. 23, New Mexico.

Federal Tax Cut Saves Money Here

The $1,363,000,000 federal tax cut resulting from the tax revisions recently enacted by an overwhelming vote of Congress will mean about $3,864,300 less the rest of this year that the people of Santa Clara county will have to pay in taxes to Uncle Sam, California Taxpayers' association estimated today.

For the people of California, it means about $127,031,600 less in taxes that will be taken from them this year—about $10.40 per person or about $41.60 for a family of four—this is about $127,000,000 "not taken" from Californians which they may save, or spend, or invest.

Californians are about 7.5 per cent of the population of the United States—but carry about 9:32 per cent of the federal tax burden. They have a relatively bigger stake in federal expenditure and federal tax cuts than do taxpayers in most of the other states, the association said.

S. F. CAN FIRM EXPANDS PLANT

Ground was broken in San Francisco last week for a $2,050,000 addition to the plant of the American Can Company.

The new building, at 3d and 20th Streets, will house production equipment and serve as a warehouse. It is scheduled for completion early next year.

Two bridges will connect the new building with the existing plant, one for trucks and the other for power cables and other apparatus.

LAW IN ACTION

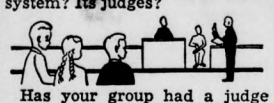
JUSTICE IS WHAT WE MAKE IT

Your city may have fine law enforcement agencies, good judges, an alert bar, and well conducted courts.

Then thank some one or some group in your city. For good courts do not happen by chance.

Most of us want speedy, sound justice. You can get good justice, like liberty, only at the price of watchfulness.

Do you work with a group which takes an interest in your city's brand of justice? Its justice for youngsters? Its jury system? Its judges?



Has your group had a judge or lawyer speak lately on your courts? Do your school children hear such speakers or visit courts in session?

Do you know any local judges?

Have you seen your local courts at work? Do you like the way they handle their cases?

Do you know the special services they give?

Is your local court run with dignity worthy of its work?

How much does it cost taxpayers to run your courts? Are they properly housed?

How long does it take for a case to come up for trial in your city?

Do you know what your local bar association is doing to improve court service?

How do costs of handling an average case in your county compare with other counties?

Does your city provide legal service for the poor?

Do you feel that the law, courts, and the bar are giving you the protection you want in your personal and business affairs?

These are vital questions for us to answer when our system of justice is under fire at home and abroad.

NOTE: The State Bar of California offers this column for your information so that you may know more about how to act under our laws.

Priest Favors Legal Narcotics As Dope Solution

Father Lawrence O'Farrell, former Chaplain of the state prisons at Soledad, San Quentin and Tehachapi, was the guest speaker at the Monday meeting of the Campbell Rotary Club in the I. O. O. F. Hall.

The topic for the day was "Narcotics" and Father O'Farrell emphasized the definite growing problem of drugs, especially in the use of heroin. He explained that sooner or later all drug addicts end up "pushing" the drug because of the tremendous cost involved in its use.

Reflecting on his experience in the prisons he stated that approximately 75% of the persons confined to prisons are there due to crimes traceable to the use of narcotics.

He said that the only solution to the problem he could see was to legalize and strictly regulate the use of narcotics which would take the profit out of the drug traffic. This measure would cause a decrease in the number selling drugs to get the huge sums of money necessary to keep themselves supplied.

Father O'Farrell was introduced by Pasquale Tonini, Ed Tonini's father. He is a member of the Soledad Club, has been a Rotraian for 20 years and is a past president.

The program was arranged by Ed Tonini who was unable to attend because he is in a San Francisco hospital.

Republican Group To Hire Secretary

The Santa Clara County Republican County Central Committee, with an eye on the November election, Tuesday night voted to hire a permanent secretary to work with various party organizations in the County and with the candidates, who are State Senator John F. "Jack" Thompson, Congressman Charles S. Gubser, and Assemblyman Clark L. Bradley and Bruce Allen. A yearly salary of $4,800 was agreed upon, subject to approval by the United Republican Finance Committee.

In other business, County Chairman Robert Free appointed the following sub-committee chairmen: William Allman, Associate Membership Chairman; Ernest H. Renzel, Jr., Finance; Robert L. Davis, Publicity; and Donald Strahl, Vice-Chairman from the First Supervisorial District.

The committee approved its by-laws for the next two years. An interesting provision is one that revives the old party caucus. By a 2/3 vote of the committee members present at any meeting the Central Committee may enter into a committee meeting of the whole.

The by-laws also provide for the holding of voting proxies by elected members. In the past Associate, or Honorary Members to the committee, could hold voting proxies.

Niel Justesen, Palo Alto Engineer, moved that a loyalty oath be included in the by-laws. This matter was referred to the by-laws committee with the recommendation that they introduce a loyalty oath article at the next meeting.
